RANGER/ADMINISTRATION PROJECT
NEARING COMPLETION

The second phase of the Ranger/Administration building project is rapidly closing in on a year end 2009 completion, and Village officials anticipate moving the Administrative personnel back into their renovated spaces during the first full week of January. The new Council Chambers will be ready for use for the January 11th Special Mayor's Court session and the January 19th Planning Commission meeting. The first Council meeting in the new handicapped accessible space will be January 25, 2010.

The Village appreciates the patience that residents have exhibited while accessing the Ranger Station and Administrative Offices during the year long construction project. Beginning January 11th, residents will be able to once again access all Village Offices and Council Chambers from the rear parking lot via either the Drake Road or Shawnee Run access drives. The new rear entrance to the building will be fully handicapped accessible.

We would be remiss if we did not also express our sincere appreciation to the Madeira and Indian Hill Joint Fire District for hosting Council, Planning Commission, and Green Areas committee meetings in their training room during the past twelve months. Their generosity and cooperation during the construction really helped keep the meetings convenient and accessible for Village Officials and the general public.

Finally, Village Officials are planning an open house during the early spring so that residents can visit the newly renovated facilities and celebrate the on time and under budget completion of this important Village project. The date and time for the open house will be announced in the next edition of the Village Bulletin.

INDIAN HILL SHOOTING CLUB TO CONDUCT (CONCEALED CARRY WEAPON TRAINING)

The Indian Hill Shooting Club will conduct CCW (Concealed Carry Weapon) training classes on January 28th, 29th, & 30th. Courses are limited to Indian Hill Shooting Club members and Village residents.

Course fees for members of the club are $150.00. The non-member resident fee is $200.00, which includes a membership in the Indian Hill Shooting Club ($150.00 for the CCW class and $50.00 for membership to the Shooting Club through March 31, 2010).

This class is 12 hours in length over the course of two evenings and a Saturday range session. Thursday and Friday's classes will begin at 6:00 p.m. and end at 10:00 p.m. at the Shooting Club lodge located on State Route 126. Saturday's class will begin at 10:00 a.m. and end at 2:00 p.m. with a one hour break.

The classes are taught by a staff of certified instructors, and satisfy the instructional requirements of the new Ohio CCW law. Please note that this class, in and of itself, does not generate a CCW license. This class will only satisfy the instructional requirements to get the CCW license. You must apply for the license at your local sheriff's office.

To enroll, contact Karen Allen at the Village Administration office located at 8260 Shawnee Run Road (Phinney House located behind the Village Administration Building), Cincinnati, OH 45243. Fees are due in full at the time of enrollment. No refunds will be given. Attendance is limited to 20 students per class. Spaces are filled in the order of enrollment.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS

Indian Hill Primary and Elementary Schools will hold open houses for parents of prospective students on Thursday, January 7, 2010. The Primary School will welcome parents 9:00-10:00 AM, and the Elementary School, 10:00-11:00 AM. It is not necessary to make a specific appointment.

Scholarships for Indian Hill High School Alumni

As the 2009 graduating class of Indian Hill High School scatters across college campus this fall eleven alumni are benefiting from scholarships granted by the Indian Hill High School Alumni Association

The Alumni Association has been granting scholarships to alumni and their families for over a decade, in honor of Mr. William P. Kincaid. This year, 11 alumni are using The scholarship to attend Capella University in Minnesota, Northern Kentucky University, the University of Kentucky, Wright State University, the University of Cincinnati, Good Samaritan College of Nursing and Health Sciences, the University of Arizona, Ohio Wesleyan University, Wittenburg University, an Associated Writers and Writing Programs Conference in Chicago and the University of South Carolina.

The scholarships are bequests from the William P. Kincaid Scholarship fund honoring the late William P. Kincaid, former English teacher, golf coach, newsletter/Chieftain publisher, class play advisor, football & basketball announcer and all-around best friend for Indian Hill students for decades.

All alumni and their families, whether they belong to the Alumni Association or not, are qualified to apply for these scholarships, which are granted in the spring each year. Information about the William P. Kincaid scholarship is available on the Alumni Association's website at: <http://www.ihhsaa.org/scholar.html>.

ROWE ARBORETUM WELCOMES YOU

First off, everyone associated with the Stanley M. Rowe Arboretum wishes you a Happy New Year. We hope you are looking forward to 2010 as much as we are. A new year always brings us a new spring, eventually, and the start of a new growing season for our gardens. With that in mind we hope that you will come and visit the collections even now well before the spring flush. Oh, and come back then too!

Why visit in the winter? It's all dark and gloomy and such, you might say. Nothing can be further from the truth! The collections are filled with a large assortment of evergreen type plants. There are hundreds of specimens that are not "naked" and are colored with all sorts of wintertime foliage, and if you time your walk while there is a snow or ice covering, the plants take on another whole new and different look too. As for the deciduous plants, their shapes, structures, and textures can be enjoyed without them hiding under the cloak of foliage that summer brings.

If you are a bird watcher, the winter brings in many species from way up north. Our specimens provide food and shelter for many vacationing feathered visitors that will not be here come springtime.

As for the quiet retreat the gardens can give you, the wintertime can be the most silent. Even the minute sounds of summer from neighboring properties that are rarely heard if at all, are now gone. It's a good time to hear the local owls, the winter calls of other birds and even the voices of other fauna in the area. You'll have to visit and listen to what four legged creatures live in the neighborhood.

To find the Arboretum, just head for 4600 Muchmore Road in the southwest portion of the Village. Follow our driveway to the top of the ridge and the signs to get in the automatic gate. Take a walk on our gravel paths and enjoy all we have to offer. Also don't be surprised you find others walking off those few extra holiday pounds too; maybe another good reason to see you here.

DOROTHY KOCH FAMILY
FOUNDATION FUNDS
INDIAN HILL HIGH SCHOOL
CHINESE PROGRAM

Indian Hill Public Schools Foundation was the recipient of a generous grant from the Dorothy Koch Family Foundation to fund curriculum materials for the school's newly formed Chinese Language Department.

With financial support from the Koch Foundation, program administrators led by head teacher Peggy Liu Lovro, researched and purchased over 150 text and resource books for classroom use and a Chinese library, visual aids and computer software.

"As China emerges as a world power, it is important for our students to become familiar with its language and culture. We feel this program will give the students a competitive advantage and help prepare them for the future." said Lisa Koch Greene, spokeswoman and representative of the Dorothy Koch Family Foundation.

This is the first year for the Chinese Language Department at Indian Hill High School which emphasizes instruction in listening and speaking skills as well as supplemental study of Chinese history, culture and perceptions.

The Dorothy Koch Family Foundation was founded in honor of Dorothy Kautz Koch, and her lifelong commitment to education. Koch was a long time Indian Hill resident and 20-year teaching veteran of the school district. She recognized the quality of education available in Indian Hill and its role in making the community one of the most attractive places to raise a family in the United States.

Indian Hill Middle School
Theatre delivers on "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland"

True to Lewis Carroll's bizarre story of a young girl in search of the eighth square, the Indian Hill Middle School Theatre's production of Alice's Adventure in Wonderland was full of quirky and spirited characters and head scratching situations. Directed by Emily Martin and coordinated by Martha Lowe, the performance was delivered flawlessly and the actors truly embraced the essence of each of the unique and eccentric personalities of their characters.

From the very first introduction of Alice, portrayed brilliantly by Maria Hooker (8th grade) and her immediate encounter with the lively White Rabbit, portrayed by Connor Klinedinst (8th grade) the audience was drawn into the chess board of a story that led Alice through a series of vignettes on her quest for the eighth square and her return home. On the way she encounters several peculiar characters including the non-stop Red Queen (Emma Lowe), the confused White Queen (Becca Daun), the loud and peppery Duchess (Tekla Gaughan) and her cook (Corrine Florentino) among many others. And of course, she makes time to join the Mad Hatter (Quinn Falter), the Dormouse (Emma Kinsel) and the March Hare (Anneke Stern) for one of the most hilarious tea parties imaginable. The performance culminates at the all-hands-on-deck trial with the temperamental Queen of Hearts (Katina Calamari) and her soft spoken Knave (Mark Toler). What a thrill it was to watch these young talents deliver a truly stunning rendition of a very difficult tale. If you missed this one, be sure to mark your calendars for their spring musical "Mulan" on March 12 and 13. You won't want to miss the opportunity to see these young stars shine!

"TRADED"

"TRADED" is the latest book on baseball by Doug Decatur, a 1977 graduate of Indian Hill. His interest in baseball began at an early age. Decatur's great uncle, Arthur Decatur, pitched in the major leagues, and he struck out Babe Ruth. Doug Decatur's parents are James and Becky Decatur of Indian Hill.

"TRADED" identifies the 306 most lopsided trades in baseball history and discusses the stories behind the trades.

"TRADED" is available at book stores.

Indian Hill Church Art Show A Huge Success

Once again, the Indian Hill Church Art Show was a huge success selling over $52,000 worth of fabulous art on Friday evening, November 13 and Saturday, November 14. Thirty percent of the net proceeds went to the Indian Hill Church Outreach Programs: Inter Parish Ministry (IPM), Madisonville Education and Assistance Center (MEAC), Avondale Summer Enrichment Program, Jail Ministry (at the Hamilton County Jail and at the Youth Detention Center), Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN), Transforming Jail Ministries, The Navajo land Mission Trip, the Costa Rica Mission trip and the Water Project.

The show, featuring 96 artists, began Friday as art patrons arrived at 6:00 p.m. They were immediately greeted by members of the Youth Group dressed in cheery red aprons and French berets. The enthusiastic Youth Group included:

Emma Ackermann • Rachel Bentley • Christian Betts • Megan Bierer • Libby Brown • Meredith McClay • Brad Collins • Brooke Dunn • John Edwards • Geoff Ferguson • Liz Frederick • Nicole Gibson • Allie Lightcap • Emma Lowe • John Margraf • Melanie Margraf • Stephen Martin • Chrissy Metcalf • Ellen Neumann • Sarah Phillips • Leonore Salvado • Paul Salvado • Amy Sherpenberg • Ellie Stokley • Matteo Squire • Lucas Whitehouse • Rachel Wilson • Suzy Wilson • Meghan Vorpe • and Meredith McClay (youth mentor).

All in all, everyone enjoyed visiting with old friends, viewing the art and getting a jump on the Christmas season by purchasing unique gifts that are sure to become keepsakes for many years to come.

There were two new exciting additions to this year's Art Show. The first was Split the Pot in which patrons had the opportunity to purchase a $10 ticket for a drawing, held on Saturday, and split the pot with the church. The lucky winner was Barbara McFarland who very generously donated her winnings to the church's choir program, a group that is near and dear to her heart. Many thanks to Barbara! Secondly, the Art of Giving puzzle gave patrons the opportunity to donate $20 for a puzzle piece that will be used to provide Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner for needy families.

Over the years the entire Congregation has become deeply involved in the success of the event. From set-up to clean up, hundreds of parishioners volunteer their time and talents to make the Show enjoyable for all guests. Pam Middendorff chaired this event for the second consecutive year and Volunteer Leaders included: Jamie and Ron Abrams, Jane Bennett, Bruce Blocksom, Stephanie Curtis, Mary Dieckmann, Melanie Hynden, Cindy and Vern McNeill, Susie Myers, Karen O'Maley, Susan Pfau, Judy and Dave Scroggins, Linda Seal, and Clark and Ellen Sole. The church members make the delicious signature appetizers that are passed throughout the evening by Youth Group members who have overwhelming enthusiasm. Church Greeters were on hand during the Show to offer assistance and answer any questions guests had. The Art Show could not have happened without the support of Dr. David Hawley, Pastor, Reverend Anne Wriener, Michelle VanOudenallen, Youth Minister, and staff members Ann Pardue, Kimberly Sedam, Anne Grimes, Beth Thomas and Danny Spears.

"The Art Show is both an honor and pleasure to put together. It provides a vehicle for Church members to come together, make new friends in the immediate community, support the local artisan community, and ultimately help the thousands of deserving recipients in the world community through our Outreach Programs. The love and energy that goes into this event starts with the individual in our congregation and literally travels around the world," says Pam Middendorff, Chairperson.

Scout Emergency Response Team (SERT)

What is a SERT?

The Scout Emergency Response Team (SERT) is a group of qualifying and trained senior Boy Scouts and Venture Crew Members who respond in an organized fashion to emergencies and disasters in their own home town or neighborhood.

What will a SERT Member Do?

It will vary with the nature of the emergency. In general the SERT Team members will execute a pre-planned effort in their own neighborhood to assist and support the elderly and disabled who may have difficulty coping with the effects of extreme weather or unexpected disaster.

The Boy Scouts will have a list of elderly or disabled individuals in their own neighborhoods to check on and assist (deliver food, drinking water or blankets) in a crisis or assist in cleanup after a crisis. The SERT team member may also be responsible for reporting on conditions to the local emergency responders when the situation warrants additional expertise or attention.

How Can I register for the Assistance of Local Boy Scouts in an Emergency?

If you are interested in being included on a list of local residents who will benefit from the help of your local Boy Scouts during the next weather related or general community emergency please call the number below. We will then arrange a "fair weather" introduction to the Boy Scout(s) who are likely to assist you in a crisis so you can become familiar with one another before the need for support arises.

The Hearing Speech & Deaf Center Celebrates 85 Years Serving the Greater Cincinnati Community

The Board of Directors and staff of the Hearing Speech & Deaf Center of Greater Cincinnati are excited to celebrate the 85th year of service to the Greater Cincinnati Community. Hearing and speech obstacles have affected many personalities such as Mozart who at the age of 28 began to notice his hearing loss and at the age of 50 was completely deaf. How tragic that one of the world's greatest composers could not hear his own music. James Earl Jones had to overcome a major speech impediment on his way to becoming the voice of Darth Vader; stuttering.

To commemorate 85 years of helping the community overcome communication obstacles, the Center will host the Mardee Wachs Volunteer Service Award Gala honoring long-time Center supporter Dick Hannan. Dick Hannan has been a valued trustee, donor and client of the Hearing Speech & Deaf Center. He gives freely of his time, talent and treasury and we would love for those who know him, have worked with him, respect and admire him help us celebrate and honor him. We are delighted that Mrs. Suzanne Zesch has agreed to be Honorary Chairperson of the festivities. Mrs. Zesch is a granddaughter of Anna Pattison, the wife of the Ohio Governor and first to found our Center, then known as the Cincinnati League for the Hard of Hearing. The Gala will take place on Thursday, May 13th in the Hall of Mirrors at the Hilton Hotel. Please mark your calendar and help us celebrate 85 years and our honoree, Dick Hannan!

The Hearing Speech & Deaf Center strengthens our community by supporting individuals and families to overcome obstacles to communication. We believe that communication is the foundation of all human interactions. We provide a barrier-free, inclusive and nurturing environment for anyone seeking to overcome obstacles regarding speech, hearing or deafness. To help support the Center, please send donations to 2825 Burnet Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45219, call 513-221-0527 or visit www.hearingspeechdeaf.com. The Center is a United Way Agency.

Cincinnati Country Day School Food Drive

The entire CCDS school community gathered together to celebrate the Thanksgiving Food Drive for the House of Refuge Mission. The Lower and Upper School students collected thousands of canned goods (1597 items in total) and the Middle School brought in over 160 frozen turkeys weighing in at 2092 pounds. United Dairy Farmers supplied a refrigerated truck for the frozen turkeys and all the food was taken to the House of Refuge Mission to be distributed this coming week.

The morning started with an all-school assembly on the dining terrace where students sang the alma mater, recited the pledge of allegiance, and sang songs. Lower School students introduced Head of School, Dr. Robert Macrae who spoke briefly to the students before dismissing them to participate in the Turkey Train. The Turkey Train was an idea started 3 years ago by Middle School Head John Polasko where the entire Middle School gathers in front of the school and passes frozen turkeys that they have collected from one end of the student line to the other into a freezer truck before being transported to the House of Refuge Mission. The CCDS Middle School has been providing food to the House of Refuge Mission for more than 20 years and is the largest donor in the city.

Students donated more than a ton of Turkeys & nearly 1600 canned goods

ALISA WRIGHT COLOPY NAMED FIRST WINNER OF CARY, NC ANNUAL HOMETOWN SPIRIT AWARD

Family fitness philanthropist, advocate, coach and community volunteer Alisa Wright Colopy (IHHS, 1976) is the recipient of the Town of Cary's first annual Hometown Spirit Award, which is designed to recognize community-minded citizens who enhance the quality of life in Cary by preserving, promoting and carrying out positive small town community values and traits. The honor was announced by the Cary Town Council. Wright Colopy received a plaque, and the Town will recognize her on a plaque inside Town Hall. "This is such an amazing honor," said Wright Colopy. "But I have to say it goes to literally thousands of volunteers that have helped me for the last 14 years, and so I share this with all of them, including my family and friends who give my projects legs and the people that I work with in the Town of Cary."

In 1996, when Coach Alisa Wright Colopy moved to Cary, NC, the CDC announced that North Carolina ranked 49th in physical activity. That year Alisa started her 501c3 nonprofit all-volunteer organization Fit & Able Productions providing a well organized path for Cary residents to volunteer their time towards promoting family fitness. She has engaged hundreds of volunteers and thousands of participants since 1997. Alisa has been a tireless volunteer with tremendous credibility, vision and organizational skill. As an Ironman-triathlete and marathoner, Alisa lives her own words. Alisa's vision is providing inclusion events and programs that allow physically and mentally challenged athletes to participate in the same activities as fully functioning participants. She has coached athletes ages 5 to 85 years, at all skill levels (novice to expert). As a community organizer, Alisa has nurtured loyalty in her volunteers and participants.

The award was inspired by a suggestion from Cary citizen William Clifton Barnes, Hometown Spirit Award nominees had to demonstrate leadership and integrity and be respected by peers. In addition, they had to exemplify at least one of the following criteria: helps out neighbors and fellow Cary residents; demonstrates hospitality; promotes and preserves traditional American past-times; shows a concern for preservation and works to preserve traditions and the small-town atmosphere in the community; promotes entrepreneurship through supporting locally owned business; promotes a sense of community in their neighborhood and all of Cary; demonstrates patriotism through promotion and preservation of the country's symbols and dedication to the U.S. military, past and present; and serves the community through business. Coach Wright Colopy was a clear choice as her commitment to the community excelled in all criteria areas.

Cincinnati Country Day School Musical Announcement

The Cincinnati Country Day School Upper School Drama Department is in rehearsals for its Winter Musical, "Thoroughly Modern Millie," set to run Feb. 25-27 at the school's Keeler Theater. The show was a Tony-Award-winning production on Broadway in 2002, and now 40 CCDS students are working hard to bring the show to the CCDS and Indian Hill community.

The show is based on the motion picture starring Julie Andrews, Mary Tyler Moore and Carol Channing; the story is centered on Millie Dillmount, a young, starry-eyed girl from the Midwest, who moves to the Big Apple in 1922 to find herself a rich husband, all while adapting to the "new modern" lifestyle of raised skirt lines and bobbed hairstyles. She manages to find love, but not before falling into some crazy adventures along the way, including a speedy test in the steno pool, a trip to a speakeasy, and a run-in with a slave trader?? With a full ensemble of singers and dancers, this show has something for everyone.

Leading the cast: Ali Breneman as Millie, Charlie Schreiber as Jimmy, Micaela Mullee as Mrs. Meers, Catherine Smith as Miss Dorothy, Josh Motley as Trevor Graydon, and Mick Abrahamson and Todd Legette as Bun Foo and Ching Ho. The rest of the cast includes: Carson Aquino, Nathan Breneman, Libby Brown, Jayne Caron, Holly Dayton, Sofia DiFrancesco, Maddi Elkin, Sara Fitzgerald, Ellis Frederick, Allison Gaines, Alexia Gaines, Amia Gaines, Ishan Ghildyal, Becky Hartle, Tre Hawkins, Emma Hoenemeyer, Dawn Johnsen, Jennifer March, Brian McSwiggen, Allison Mesh, Rebecca Miller, Sarah Mueller, Annie Mullee, Annie Nesbitt, Victoria Paff, Molly Petre, Mackenzie Pickett, Emily Sprinkle, Luke Stacy, Douglas Tallmadge, and Charlotte Ward.

The show will perform Feb. 25, 26 and 27 at the John Whitman Keeler Theater; Thursday and Friday at 7 p.m., Saturday at 2 and 7 p.m. Tickets are $8.00 for students and $10.00 for adults, and will be available at www.seatyourself.biz/countryday. For more information about the show, or about the CCDS Drama Department, contact the director, Mark Femia at femiam@countryday.net, or at 513-979-0356.

...THEN AND NOW

From the Indian Hill Historical Society

Buckingham Lodge
1861

Colonel Isaac Waring's Poetry

Colonel Isaac Waring was born in Columbia in 1799, went to common school, and continued his education by self study. His 38 acre farm was at the corner of Miami and Brill Roads. A member of the Hamilton County Horticultural Society, he was a founder and the President of the Indian Hill Horticultural Society. Meetings of the latter group were often held in the Colonel's Wine House. Each month members discussed agricultural practices, and sampled local wine. Waring, a lifelong bachelor, acquired a printing press at age 69, and began publishing his own works. His 300 page Miscellaneous Poems, published in 1878, is a remarkable volume.

Waring's poetry praised local organizations and places. He wrote On Odd Fellowship, calling the group "a friendly band of brothers". Two poems were written for Jefferson School. He advised students to "obey your teacher, love your books..." The Colonel applauded the Jefferson Cornet Band twice in verse, and urged them not to play "ugly tunes". Waring addressed 5 poems to the Horticultural Society of Indian Hill, commending farmers and their endeavors.

Several poems revered the pleasures of outdoor life, e.g. Fishing and Ducking; A Conversation between Birds; The Groundhog and the Skunk; A Pleasant Walk; and A Rabbit Hunt. Holidays merited rhymes – 2 poems were about the 4th of July and 3 about Christmas. Villagers celebrated Independence Day with a picnic, a band, and a dance, and at Christmas, there was a tree at the one room Jefferson School, with fruit and candy for students. As the Civil War was still fresh in the public memory, the Colonel wrote about it in J.T. DeMar and the Rebellion and On the Horrors of War. He also praised local ladies who formed a Soldiers' Aid Society.

Waring included opinions on political issues, fashion, and local events. In On Woman's Rights, he opposed female suffrage, "when women go to vote with men ... our nation's hopes will all miscarry." Still he glorified woman as "the flower of the land". The Author's Views on Temperance advised a temperate life, but stated that "temperance means moderation – not that we abstain." He disapproved of female fashion of the era, writing "woman is the noblest work in all of God's creation, but when she puts the bustle on, she sinks in estimation." Regarding a religious camp meeting in Arthur's Great Camp Meeting on Indian Hill, he believed the preacher was "a most egregious pest" because his "aim was money", and the meeting did "no good" for the community.

Many verses celebrated Waring's neighbors and friends. Darius Flinn's Courtship and Wedding related the story of a local couple. He saluted a 10th Anniversary in Mr. and Mrs. Stevens' Tin Wedding, and a student's educational progress in another poem. On Colonel Moore's Cider Press focused on his neighbor's splendid contraption.

A thoughtful man, Waring shared his personal philosophy with readers. In Traveling through the World, he concluded "Be honest, truthful, just and kind; and help those who your help may need, and then proclaim to all that this should be man's universal creed." A 15 page poem, The World's Inequalities commented that the "world is indeed strange." Waring's lyric poetry, written in couplets and quatrains, presents aspects of life in an earlier era. Life was simpler then, and the Colonel's 96 poems reflect those bygone days.

THE INDIAN HILL HISTORICAL SOCIETY

CHRISTMAS PARTY ENJOYED BY ALL!

Village residents celebrated the beginning of the Holiday Season at the Annual Village Christmas Party given by the Indian Hill Historical Society.

Sally and Jack Heckscher came with their grandchildren

A record number of families attended. They were wowed by the Cartoonist, the Balloon Artists, the Face Painters and the Juggler.

A Lesson in Juggling!

Singing Christmas carols with pianist, Peter Michaels, was a highlight of the afternoon, until, or course, Santa Claus arrived. Jolly Old Saint Nick was delivered in style by Bonnie Mitsui and her horse drawn carriage from Turner Farm.

Santa Arrives

Everyone enjoyed the home-made cookies made by the Trustees of the Historical Society. And, while the adults partook in the grog and egg nog, the children lined up to sit on Santa's lap to share their Christmas wishes with him..

Jacob and James Kennedy were Santa's youngest admirers

Josi Sammarco and Sarah Borden enjoyed the homemade treats

This is the 29th consecutive year that the Indian Hill Historical Society has made this Christmas Party Gift to our Village.

WANTED: OLD PHOTOGRAPHS OF INDIAN HILL RESIDENTS, HOMES, AND SCENES

The Historical Society is always interested in expanding our archives. To do this, we need the assistance of our residents.

This may be a great time for you and your family to take a trip down memory lane as you go through your albums and framed pictures depicting the lives of your parents, grandparents or great-grandparents. If you have historical photographs that pertain to our village and its early residents, we would appreciate your sharing them.

We may be able to help you restore photographs that are in poor condition. With your permission, we would like to copy some pictures for our Archive Room and Hauck Library. Please let us know!

Call: 891-1873

ATTENTION INDIAN HILL VETERANS

The Indian Hill Historical Society recognizes the important contributions made to our lives and to our country by the men and women who have served in our armed forces. We believe that it is important to record the names and service of our Village Veterans so that future generations can remember these fine individuals.

If you are a Veteran of the United States Military, we would appreciate your taking the time to fill out this form and send it to the IHHS: 8100 Given Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45243. Or, you may email the information to ihhist@cinci.rr.com THANK YOU.
